

Community of Business Agility Practice

Terms of Reference

The Agile Business Consortium is the professional body for business agility, dedicated to advancing business agility worldwide. It is agile framework agnostic and drives for excellence across both the process and people elements of business agility.

This Community of Practice is for organisations who wish to improve and extend their business agility. The Consortium recognises that 'a resilient organisation needs good networking collaboration to consolidate its business success. Network collaboration refers to sharing of ideas and information between different people and organisations to work together for a common interest.'ⁱ

The Community is not open to consultancies and those providing agile services or products.

The Vision

Organisations can meet and share experience and knowledge around the issues that are important to them. They will have the opportunity to meet monthly and to disseminate learning and insights from each meeting across their organisation.
